Trace Dining

Designed by Adam Goodrum

Defined by its dynamic play of materials and design detail, the Trace Dining Collection by Adam Goodrum is an exploration of texture, colour and substance.

High performance and engineered to withstand harsh environmental conditions, Trace Dining has been developed with expert craftsmanship, employing aluminium, sustainable timbers and marbled porcelain materials.

Spanning commercial to residential and hospitality to corporate applications, each piece in this complete and comprehensive collection is designed for outdoor use, though is equally at home indoors.

All Tait pieces are made locally and come with a 5-year warranty.
